Rev. Horace Sheffield & Mason in the Morning
"Passing the Baton w/ DPS and Robert Bobb"

The Detroit Public Schools are at the beginning of a marathon and it will probably take a team of runners to complete the lengthy race and eventually cross the finish line. So, although this race began years ago the team continues to pass the baton in hopes of staying on path towards successfully educating Detroit's future; our children. As a result, the new passing of the baton will be with Roy Roberts the new DPS Emergency Financial Manager named less than a month ago and Rev. Horace Sheffield and Mason in the Morning want to share news of the race, the team and farewell to Robert Bobb during a live broadcast.

Rev. Horace Sheffield said, "I believe that Detroit's greatest asset is our children. Mr. Bobb had the fortitude to make tough financial decisions while also demonstrating compassion towards administrators, students and their families. I know that not everyone will join in the celebration but we need to come together and share the positive news of our successes this school year. Detroiters deserve to be informed about the achievements DPS has made. So, Mason and I look forward to sharing the good news too." Everyone was welcome to attend this live broadcast and join in on the discussion of education while also listening to administrators, DPS board members and local officials on this vital topic that affects us all.

Rev. Horace Sheffield and Mason in the Morning partnered this live 107.5 WGRP radio broadcast to thank Mr. Robert Bobb and welcome Mr. Roy Roberts on Wednesday, June 22, 2011 from 6:00am-10:00am show. The live broadcast was hosted at the Detroit Cares Alternative High School where the public was welcomed and breakfast was served. The Detroit Cares High School is located at 8100 W. Davison, Detroit 48238.
